

Terms and conditions

1. To partake in any yoga group or private class, workshop or course is done at your own risk. The given classes are physical and there is always a risk of injury. The participant self is responsible for any injury. If in doubt, please check with your doctor if it is beneficial for you to participate in yoga classes.
2. Each participant must inform the instructor of any physical symptoms and/or injuries prior to commencement of the class. Without this information the teacher won't be able to guide the participant properly. A pregnancy should also be reported to the instructor.
3. Yoga Sanchara is not liable for any damage and/or loss of any property of the participant.
4. We strongly advise to book a yoga class online via Eversports to ensure a spot, and the class is not fully booked.
5. If the participant is unable to attend a single group or private class then this should be canceled at least 24 hours in advance, online via Eversports. In case of a monthly subscription you can make up for the canceled class within the term of the relevant month, if a spot available. After that, the missed lesson will be canceled. A single classes purchased is valid for 2 months from the first booking date and can be made up after cancellation within the term of that period, provided there is room.
6. A whole reserved lesson block should be canceled 1 week in advance. In case of absence from a class during a lesson block, no refund or credit shall be provided, in order to ensure that the lesson block is held.
7. Workshops and courses have a cancellation period of 1 week.
8. In case of late cancellation Yoga Sanchara is obliged to charge the reserved single group or private class, lesson block, workshop or course costs.
9. Regular group classes (single classes and lesson blocks) only take place with at least 3 signups. Without further notice of Yoga Sanchara regular group classes will actually take place. For workshops and courses the minimum number of signups required to allow passage will be determined at the time. This will be indicated in the details of the particular workshop or course on the website.
10. It is possible that a regular class will be canceled. If so, the booking will be void. In case of a lesson block, it will be scheduled at a later point in time. When this concerns a single class, the participant will be able to take the class at a later stage. Check Eversports and the mailbox to make sure the classes will actually take place.
11. On school holidays and any other special events there might be a different class schedule. In that case, the participant will be informed of new dates and times via Eversports and / or a newsletter. Check Eversports and the mailbox to make sure the classes will actually take place.
12. No classes will be given on public holidays and during Christmas Holidays (meaning 2 weeks in The Netherlands).
13. In the case of missed classes due to illness, vacation or any other reasons, there will be no refund.
14. Trial classes, single classes and tickets fees must be paid online in advance by the participant, preferably through iDEAL, or a bank transfer indicating first name, surname and type of class/subscription, to NL16 KNAB 0255 3459 09 to the attention of Yoga Sanchara.
15. A monthly subscription must be paid online in advance by the participant, preferably through iDEAL, after which it will be collected automatically per month. The monthly subscription can be canceled monthly. From 1 October 2020, registration costs of € 7,50 will be added when purchasing or re-purchasing a monthly subscription.
16. Single classes, tickets and subscriptions are strictly personal and not transferable. Refund of tuition fees is not possible.
17. In certain cases subscriptions are allowed to be "frozen" or put on hold temporarily. However this has to be discussed with the Yoga Sanchara owner prior to undertaking any changes.
18. In case of outstanding payment Yoga Sanchara deserves the right to claim from the participant all collection costs.
19. In case of none, or late payment Yoga Sanchara has the right to remove the participant from attending any further group- or private class, workshop or course. The Yoga Sanchara owner is happy to discuss at any time, how to resolve any issues in regards to payment.
20. Yoga Sanchara reserves the right to alter any schedule and/or training facility, as well as to alter or contribute to the terms and conditions at any time they choose to do so. Changes will be posted on the website and in Eversports.
21. Any issues that could arise in written form, or verbally with a participant not agreeing to the terms and conditions will be presented to a competent judge or a person(s) of the same caliber. All cases presented to Yoga Sanchara will have to adhere to the Dutch legal system.
22. Upon enrollment in Eversports and when participating in any of the yoga classes, workshops and courses you agree to these terms and conditions set out above, including subscription of the newsletter for which unsubscribing is always possible.
